

The Redeemer Review

Proclaiming Christ into the 21st Century

Volume 9

September 2016

When September comes around a lot of fond memories occupy my mind. I think of leaving home to start school, starting a new career opportunity, birthday of a beloved Mother, anticipation of the coming Autumn season and return to the normal rhythm of the Church.

In the lectionary calendar, it is still “ordinary days” in the season of Pentecost. Around the Church, we have seen coming and going, of new people in the community of faith and bidding farewell to the beloved in Christ who have returned home to be with God.

I love words. The Church uses a lot of words to describe the God who is with us. In the last few weeks, we have focused on the idea of being grounded in faith and in creation. We explored what it means to be good stewards of creation (dirt, water and sky). We connected with our roots, home, neighborhood, commons and sacred spaces in our lives.

Diana Butler Bass wrote in her book, Grounded, “people are finding new spiritual ground through a God who resides in the world with us.”

I wonder if there is one word or theme that will define September here at Our Redeemer’s United Methodist Church. I would suggest going all the way back to the last book of the Bible.

“God’s dwelling place is now among people, and he will dwell with them. They will be His people, and God himself will be with them and be their God.” (Revelation 21:3)

The word is dwell. It sounds static, seemingly monotonous and boring. At least that is the impression when one is only concerned about the individual, private practice of faith.

The Biblical practice however gives us another way of reading through a different lens of faith. To allow God to dwell in our hearts is an invitation to live a life of significance with Jesus saying, "Go therefore....and make disciples."

Welcome back to two worship services beginning, September 11, 2016 at 9:00 and 10:30 a.m. We will recognize our Sunday School teachers, leaders and students in all ages.

We will receive new members in our Church. We will have a Mission Fair highlighting various ministries of the Church. It's the first ever event at ORUMC and we expect that you will set aside this time to learn more about these ministries as we "dwell" into the future.

See you in the dwelling place,

Rev. Romir R. Esguerra

ORUMC Ministry Fair Sept 11, After Each Service

The Connect committee (formerly known as Evangelism) is planning ORUMC's First annual Ministry Fair. This is your chance to learn more about all of the missions, ministries, and active groups in our church -and an opportunity to connect with new activities that match your interests.

The Ministry Fair is planned for Rally Day- as our youth get involved and inspired at the start of the new school year, we hope all ages will also find new opportunities for their involvement with the church.

Mark your calendar for Sunday September 11 after each service, and plan to browse in Wesley Hall to learn, to share, and to connect with something or someone new in the church. Snacks and raffle prizes will be provided!

Coming Soon!!

by Jill Wood Naatz

What could it be? A new and improved sanctuary? New furniture in the narthex? Too many people and not enough committees? More than enough volunteers for everything? No it's even better than all that!

Coming soon is a new church pictorial directory! That's right! You heard it from me. And we need every one of our church family to participate in order to have a complete directory. You will receive a free 8 X 10 photograph and a directory just for participating

If you wish to purchase additional photos you will receive $10 off your order for registering early! Early bird internet sign up will begin August 30 and end Sept. 24. There is a 20% discount for those over age 60. And if you bring an item for our food pantry you will receive another $5 off your order.

The photography dates are Oct. 6,7,8, and 10 at church. Stay tuned for much more information by way of email, phone calls, bulletin inserts, and announcements at church. But most important of all, we need everyone to schedule a photo shoot!

We do not know at this time if we will be allowed to have a booth on both Sunday and Monday, but we need to plan ahead to get our volunteers signed up just in case. There is a possibility that we will only be there on Monday, which is the Non-Profit Day.

The Imagine No Malaria contributions at Our Redeemer's have grown to $6289.92. We are looking forward to additional contributions at September Fest. And don't forget our Imagine No Malaria bed in the narthex is always "open for business"

The Northern Illinois Confrence is continuing the malarial fund until Mother's Day, 2017. Please consider donating to this worthy cause.

Discontinuation of Campbell Soup Label Program

by JoAnne Gregorash

Over time, ministries seem to come and go. It is time now to suspend the Campbell Soup Label program. There are only a few people contributing these days and I think that it is time we made way for new and different ministries.

I will mail the bag of labels for education that I have been acquiring through your donations and will send them to McCurdy School in New Mexico in memory of Don and Evelyn Wiebel. Thanks and blessings to all who faithfully cut and saved these over the years.

The Art of Worship

by Wilfred Peterson recommended by Bruce Bedingfield

OUTER SYMBOLS create the atmosphere and mood of worship—the altar, the cross, the candles, the stained-glass windows; the silent sanctuary before the service begins...

In cathedral or cottage, the art of worship is an inner adventure; it is the personal practice of the presence of God.

It is meditation and prayer expressing the soul's sincere desire.

It is resting our weary hearts and minds on the Everlasting Arms.

It is emptying and cleansing our minds of fear and worry, jealousy and envy that God may fill the vacuum with His goodness.

It is being quiet and relaxed that we may experience the inflow of the peace that passes all understanding.

It is counting our many blessings and giving thanks for the power to grow, to serve, to conquer ourselves and to discover the sublime values of the life of the spirit.

It is the inspiring realization that this is God's world, that all life pulsates with God's eternal purpose and that we are a part of the divine pattern and plan.

It is envisioning, high and lifted up, all that is heroic, great, good and beautiful in our common life.

It is realigning our lives again with the laws and principles of God, that we may move forward, with our brothers, on the pathway of the King.

It is the renewing of our noblest dreams and aspirations that we may rise above defeat, failure and discouragement and have another try at making the most of our lives.

It is climbing to the spiritual mountaintop of conscious oneness with God that we may light again the candles of our spirits and return as new men to the valley and our work.
